

Venture program: loans for entrepreneurs

By Helen Campbell

Many students and young entrepreneurs started their own businesses with the help of the venture program which said that "Venture is a major project within the youth entrepreneurship services branch." Worked again in a group of about 10 students in the field of a venture idea which sponsored by student council.

"Venture involved about 10 students from all over the province. The program allows students between the ages of 15 to 17 to apply for a loan up to $1,000 to help their own business.

Gross is happy to be back at Conestoga

By Helen Campbell

When it was realized that Conestoga College is one of the colleges in the province, would be away from work for the week, Gross was a good decision, Gross was called up to a temporary replacement.

He said that Gross, 28, was with the business for some time from 1973 to 1974, has returned to the company. "It is nice to be back," said Gross. "There have been a lot of changes." Gross recalled when the building, which was in a corner of the library and was "relocated to the west end of the building."
